124	Abraham 1	1821	Wilkes	GA	Lottery Participant	Rootsweb site: http://ftp.rootsweb.com/pub/usgenweb/ga/deeds/1821/18211.txt	Abraham Lindsay of Thurmond's District in Wilkes Co. won lot 274, Section 9 in Henry Co. Abraham paid one poll, but no property tax. Since this was his first year of paying taxes, he was born ca. 1783. He lived near Jacob Lindsey Sr. and may have been a son of Jacob.
217	Abraham 2	1805	Wilkes	GA	Tax List	Wilkes County, Georgia Tax Records, 1785-1805, Volume Two , by Frank Parker Hudson. Self-published in Atlanta, GA, 1996. Pg. 1205.	Abraham again paid one poll only.

Gideon had been taxed on the same land since 1790. Earlier tax lists (1785 and 1787) had listed the acreage as 100. In 1797, Charles Duke sold 178 acres on Fishing Creek to Francis Gideon. (Wilkes Co. Deed Bk. PP, pp. 227-228) Duke was taxed on the land in 1797. Duke's land was listed as having been granted originally to D. Creswell. (David Creswell had sold the land to Charles Duke earlier in 1797 per Wilkes Co. Deed Bk. PP, pp. 228-229.) In 1798 and 1799, Francis Gideon was taxed on the 178 acres he had purchased from Duke, which was shown to have been originally granted to Creswell. There was no additional tax listing for Gideon on Fishing Creek. In 1799, the heirs of Thomas Lindsey were granted 200 acres in Wilkes Co. (see below) In 1800, Francis Gideon's land was shown to amount to 200 acres with no original grantee listed, but in 1801 and 1802, the original grantee was listed as "heirs of Lindsey". In 1805, the original grantee of Gideon's land was listed as "heirs of Thomas Lindsey". It seems that the ownership of this parcel of land may have been disputed. It may have been the land involved in the 1792 guardianship of Hezekiah Lindsey and Benjamin Lindsey.
